Judge's Comments:

“ Their temporary housing and associated services enable the rapid growing of manpower needs while maintaining solid quality of life for the workforce.

“ A service provider of increasing importance for all oilfield operations ensuring workers maintain a decent work/life balance.

Whether the task involves a remote geographic region, extreme climate, stringent timeline or other unique problem set, Cotton Logistics pairs subject matter expertise with innovation and flexibility to provide the best possible solution that satisfies each clients' specific requirements.

As a full-service, turnkey lodging provider, Cotton Logistics is committed to supporting our clients' goals by creating an efficient, safe and inviting community atmosphere for the workers who keep their enterprise moving forward. From initial concept and design, through engineering, permitting and installation, no detail during the construction process is overlooked. But it doesn't end there; the attention to detail goes far beyond the initial build. At Cotton Logistics, we believe temporary housing should feel like a home away from home. The commitment to quality is apparent across each OneLodge camp, from the food services to housekeeping, guest relations and recreational amenities offered. We implement a seamless camp management system so everything functions at optimum levels, allowing our clients' workforce to focus solely on their operational responsibilities.
