

Roberts Companies

Roberts Companies is a small Women Owned Family Business that has had a significant and positive impact on our industry, clients, and most importantly our employees for nearly 40 years. We specialize in multi-discipline engineering and design, from project concept through construction. Our niche market has been the petrochemical industry where we have aspired to provide our clients with superior engineering consulting services as well as highly skilled technical contract staffing and direct hire placements.

Judge's Comments:

“ A long history of service to the industry. Good internal philosophy and approach to business. Very good community outreach.

“ Roberts Engineering and Roberts Technical Services have provided unparalleled technical support to many clients in the West Coast operating area. Their technical knowledge, as well as their tremendous field support, has truly set them apart from their peers in every area of the business.
